

It's unfortunate that our federal government cannot afford the citizens of this great nation a Do Not Call list that even approaches what we in New Jersey have come to expect as the standard for protecting our telemarketing privacy. I'm opposed to the limitations that are being imposed by federal regulators and legislators.